Census.

NEW YORK AGENCY

Salamanca, N. Y., July 29, 1916

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith the census for the year ended June 30, 1916, for the following tribes, to wit: the Oneidas, Onondagas and the Tuscaroras.

The census of the Senecas residing on the Allegany, Cattaraugus and Tonawanda reservations will not be returned to the office by the enumerators until August 1st, so that it will be the latter part of August before these will be ready to forward to the office. The census of the Cayugas will also have to be held until we receive the census from the Seneca enumerator on the Cattaraugus reservation, as substantially all of the Cayugas reside on that reservation.

Respectfully yours,
